C. Underline the incorrect prepositions and write the correct one in the blanks.

Yesterday my parents prepared a birthday party to me. I invited many friends to my home. A week before that day, I sent away many invitation cards to them.

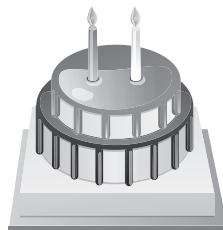

My mother prepared a lot of food such as pork chop, chicken wings and snacks. She also gave me 100 dollars and I spent it for buying lucky draw prizes.

In that day, all my best friends came. I got many presents with them. We played games, sang songs and danced together. It was a wonderful and joyful day.

After playing at two hours, my mother asked us to start eating. We stood above the table and sang the birthday song. Then I blew out the candles of my younger brother because he likes blowing candles.

After that, my mother cut the cake in pieces and gave them to everyone except my younger brother. My guests were surprised to the fact that my younger brother does not like eating birthday cakes.

When the party came at an end, all my friends left of joy. The party was a great success.
